8. Markér den beskrivelse, der passer på All about Christmas Cards.

	A: Christmas cards are a big tradition in the English-speaking world. All the postmen get headaches in December so they can't deliver the post. Christmas cards give status among friends and neighbours especially if they're put on the mantelpiece. Some people hang their Christmas cards on the wall.
	B: Christmas cards are a big tradition in the English-speaking world. They are an important part of the Christmas celebrations, and some people send over 150 cards. Most Christmas cards are given away by charities for free. Very few people are sending Christmas selfies to their family now.
	C: Christmas cards are a big tradition in the English-speaking world. Any home you visit at Christmas is decorated with cards. Christmas cards can be bought in supermarkets, but they're also a major source of income for many charities. Sending Christmas cards is still done best by "snail mail".
	D: Christmas cards are a big tradition in the English-speaking world. The tradition started in 1994 and about 1,6 million cards were sent. Many people put the Christmas cards on the mantelpiece or hang them on ribbons from the ceiling. The following Christmas the old cards are reused as decorations.
